

Happiness

results from that true contentment which indicates perfect health of body and mind. You may possess it, if you will purify and invigorate your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. E. M. Howard, Newport, N. H., writes: "I suffered for years with Scrofulous humors. After using two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Atchison, Kans., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kidder, 41 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe, even without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Waterpool, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrofula might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of and commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

USE Vegetable Sulfur HAL'S HAIR RENEWER.

It is a medicinal preparation, and, at the same time, an elegant and costly toilet article. Its action upon the scalp is beneficial. It nourishes the glands which support the hair, and causes thin, dry hair to become thick, soft, and vigorous. It restores the color of youth to locks which have become faded with age or disease; removes dandruff and scales itching, caused by humors of the scalp. Dr. George Gray, Nashua, N. H., writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the wonderful effects produced by Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Restorer, as observed by me in my own hair. I will certainly restore the hair to its original color. It cleanses the head of dandruff, and leaves the hair soft, glossy, and beautiful." P. T. Sanchetta, 1905 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "After unavailing trying a number of preparations to prevent my hair from falling out, and realizing that I was fast becoming bald, I tried, as a last resort, Hall's Hair Restorer. I have used only four bottles of the Restorer, and am perfectly satisfied that it is the best preparation in the market for checking the falling out of hair, invigorating the hair roots, and promoting a new growth."

CAREWORN AND HAGGARD

GLADSTONE'S APPEARANCE AFTER THE STRUGGLE.

Like a Death-Mask Toss From the Face of Healthful Vigor, He Appears Again—He Gives a Dinner and Resumes Social and Political—Foreign.

LONDON, June 10.—An intimate friend of Mr. Gladstone informed a correspondent that the premier in view of the exigencies of the opposition for a dissolution, seriously considered the policy of resigning and forcing the dissolution of parliament upon the next cabinet. The reporter who saw Mr. Gladstone says he looked fagged and distressed. His cheeks were pinched and sunken, and although he presented a decidedly washed-out air, the same reporter saw him after the adjournment of the soundly and untroubled at the change he beheld. The premier had cast off his worn, haggard expression as he would a mask, and appeared cheerful and smiling while his movements were as brisk as those of a man of his high years.

Mr. Gladstone gave a dinner to the Earl of Aberdeen and his wife, Baron Weymouth, and a few others, last evening, and his manner was unusually jovial. He chatted unreservedly with his guests and, expressed himself as abundantly satisfied with the present and entirely hopeful for the future.

The new Radical wing according to the present intention of his organizers, will fight upon its own hook, a specialty against Mr. Chamberlain and his followers, and some of Mr. Chamberlain's followers are hungrily yearning for a share in the election fund, of the Wing Unionist committee which already exists for the purpose of requiring some pretty severe discipline to keep them in line.

The Government whips are busy completing the lists of candidates for the new elections and a flood of manifestos from the premier down to the aspirant for parliamentary honors at the hand of the most insignificant constituency may be expected soon. Every body is laughing at the live Liberal members who walked out of the house Monday night when the voting began. It has transpired that they expected at least twenty of their colleagues to follow them and they now find themselves friendless. Some of the political organizations will assist them and their political career will end with the present session of parliament.

The report that the Marquis of Hartington was mobbed as he was leaving the house of commons last night is untrue. It is stated that Mr. Labouchere lost $25,000 on the result of the division, $50,000 of which was won by Lord Randolph Churchill. It is estimated that $125,000 changed hands on the result.

Remedy and Gladstone.

LONDON, June 10.—Henry Ponsonby, the queen's private secretary, had a long interview to-day with Mr. Gladstone. Immediately after the interview a cabinet council was called, and lasted two hours. Nothing could be learned with regard to the object of the visit of the queen's secretary nor the proceedings of the cabinet, but it is generally believed that the queen's secretary was the bearer of an important message bearing on the political crisis, and that the cabinet was called in consequence thereof.

"THE LONG RUN."

Rece Elizabeth Cleveland's First Summer Story About to Appear.

DETROIT, June 10.—"The Long Run," a novel, by Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland, will be given to the public through the hands of B. F. Dickerson, a Detroit publisher, early next week. No one but Miss Cleveland has as yet read more than the first 150 pages of the novel, but the publisher says that "The Long Run" is a love story, mainly of an oddity acting and appearing; singular and a young woman, the action of the story being at a summer resort. Miss Cleveland herself speaks of the work as a summer story.

She was so anxious to get it before the public at once that she gave the novel to the Detroit publisher, though eight New York firms were competing for it. The story is said to be swift in movement, and the pages already in type suggest that Miss Cleveland, without making a book of Washington life, has produced some character that will readily be recognized by the public.

There is considerable dialogue in the work, but frequently Miss Cleveland takes into her own hands, and then the style of the book is didactic. Miss Cleveland will be paid by a royalty on each book. The price of the manuscript was one dollar. Miss Cleveland is now in New York.

Declines to be Hounded.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 10.—The Republican waterworks' trustees last night raised a big breeze by meeting and turning out at F. Moyer, the superintendent, and putting in Charles G. Goren, who gathered up the books of the waterworks and took away the keys, which he refused to relinquish. One of the trustees left the meeting in disgust, declining to have anything to do with the proceedings. There will undoubtedly be a suit for possession, as Moyer declines to be hounded in that way.

Gambling Sensations.

SANDUSKY, Ohio, June 10.—A sensation has been caused by the filing of a petition in court by Ex-Mayor Childs, of Vermilion, charging three prominent citizens with having won $5,000 from him while playing poker. He is preparing to sue them for the money, and claims of $5,000 during the past year. There is consternation among the gamblers, as the offense is punishable in this state by heavy penalties.

An Inevitable Cause.

CHICAGO, June 10.—John Durkin, the incendiary who set fire to the house 728 Canal street last Monday, which eight lives were lost, was arrested last night. He had presented himself at the house where lay the dead body of his wife. Durkin says he was in jail at the time the fire occurred.

An Ex-Mayor Dead.

TRON, N. Y., June 10.—Ex-Mayor Bogus, of Cohoes, died, aged sixty. He was president of the Riverdale knitting mill.

TELEPHONE.

The Bell Company Refuses to Join Issue. Other Notes.

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—Hon. Aaron F. Perry, representing the Ohio defendants in the telephone case, desired to file a plea in behalf of his client, but the Bell Telephone company refused to join issue with any other party. Judge Thurman, representing the government, argued that this separation could not be considered by the court, as it makes a division in the case which was not contemplated.

The court refused to receive plea of the Ohio defendants, but granted them leave to file a motion to his three pleas, and a hearing was set for Cincinnati, September 20. Mr. Stor represented the Bell Telephone company. He received $40,000 for taking care of his suits. R. H. McDowell, of Cleveland, of Washington, of Cincinnati, and Hartford, of Columbus, represented the various telephone companies. Hon. J. H. Thurman, Chandler and Kauler represented the government.

BY THIS INDENTURE.

THE WILL OF THE LATE COL. JOHN B. FOLSON.

The Last Testament Bequeaths to His Heirs an Estate of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars to Be Divided Share and Share Alike—Mrs. Cleveland's Share.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 10.—The will of Col. John B. Folson, grandfather of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, was opened at Folsonville in the presence of all the legatees except Mrs. Cleveland. Her absence was contrary to her wish, but in obedience to the advice of friends and relatives. The will was drawn by Mr. Benjamin Folson, of this city. After the reading of the first clause provides for the payment of all debts owing by Col. Folson.

The second clause mentions an old friend and distant relative of the testator, and makes provision for the remainder of his life, and to keep the Folsonville estate intact. The legatees are Cyrus Humphrey. He lives at Folsonville. The next two clauses are as follows:

Third.—I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter-in-law, Alice R. Folson, all my household furniture, books and plate.

Fourth.—All the real estate and remainder of my estate, real and personal, whatever and wherever I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter-in-law and grandchildren, Alice R. Folson, widow of my son, Benjamin F.; Emma C. Folson, widow of my son, Oscar; Frances C. Folson, daughter of my son, William N.; and Mary Augusta Martin, to be divided share and share alike.

The fifth clause provides for the retention of the Folsonville estate until the death of the testator's daughter-in-law, Alice R. Folson, who was the wife of my son, Benjamin F. The sixth section gives Mrs. Alice R. Folson, the use, occupation and income of his house, farm and appurtenances at Folsonville until her children become of the age of twenty years.

The will names Benjamin F. Folson, of Buffalo, and Mrs. Alice Folson, as the executors. The latter is appointed guardian of the will for her four children, and Mrs. Oscar Folson is made guardian for Frances C. Folson.

The will was executed November 8, 1881, in the presence of Larin M. and Hattie E. Kitts, lawyers.

Mr. Benjamin F. Folson returned to Buffalo this evening. He says the estate is worth about $400,000. He will go to Omaha next Saturday.

Mrs. Cleveland's mother, Mrs. Oscar Folson, will visit her in Michigan next week.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

Four Men Killed on a Railroad—A Like Number Drowned—Deerster shot.

BROWNVILLE, Tex., June 10.—Two hand cars collided on a heavy grade on the National railroad at Brownville, Texas, on Saturday night, resulting in the death of four men being killed and eight badly wounded.

At Vera Cruz a pleasure row boat overset in the bay. George Powell, an American, Juan Rivera and two boatmen were drowned before help came.

By order of the authorities at Tlaxcala, Antonio Paz was taken from a fandango and shot to death. He had repeatedly deserted from the army.

On the 7th a remarkable and destructive frost was felt at San Martin, Tlaxcala; the first for fifty years.

THE DOW LAW

Already Before the Supreme Court at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—It has been ascertained that the Dow law is already before the supreme court to test its constitutionality. The Cincinnati police commissioners presented the case. They are interested in the extent of finding out whether revenue will be increased by the law.

By this plan the saloon-keepers have been brilliantly outwitted. They have the prospect of an early decision. It was the object of the enemies of the law to delay the case, and prevent a decision as soon as possible.

TO SAVE MAXWELL.

Ten Thousand Dollars Offered to the Sheriff to Permit His Escape.

St. LOUIS, June 10.—Sheriff Conkling has received a letter dated St. Louis, June 8, offering him $10,000 if he will contrive to let Maxwell, the condemned murderer of Prater, escape.

The letter is signed Charles Hunter, and asks the sheriff to appoint a meeting with the writer, at which details can be arranged.

Drowned While Bathing.

RAYWAY, N. J., June 10.—Charles Turner, aged seventeen, was drowned in the river while bathing.

Maine Republicans.

LEWISTON, Me., June 10.—The Republican party to-day nominated Bodwell for governor.

GRANDMASTER WORKMAN.

MR. POWDERLY MAKES PUBLIC A FEW IMPORTANT POINTERS.

He Will Not Permanently Locate in Philadelphia—His Resignation and Retention—About Future Strikes—The Home Club—Gould's Misperceptions.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 10.—General Master Workman Powderly has returned home. He intends to remain in Scranton despite the reports to the effect that he is about to establish headquarters in Philadelphia. He says the convention granted every request made except that of accepting his resignation, to which the delegates absolutely refused to consent. He wanted to resign because his health was breaking down under the heavy work which he was called upon to perform.

Then a motion was made to increase his salary from $1,000 to $3,000, but he ruled it out of order. None of his views were overruled, and the resolutions he offered were adopted. The executive board, in fact, was not enlarged, but six men were merely appointed at his request to act as agents of the board and under his orders.

Outside of investigating and reporting upon difficulties these men, he says, will have no power in the organization whatever. Such a strike as that which occurred in the southwest will not now be possible unless ordered by the entire board. Mr. Powderly said further that he was authorized to appoint new organizers right along, and hereafter he will appoint none who are addicted to drink.

He declared the association in the Home club. He declares the association to the effect that the club will oppose him were set afoot by reporters who became indignant because he would not spend a ride in giving them news. He is incensed over the report sent out by some of the effect that he was running the order on Roman Catholic principles, and says that Catholics have no more religious rights, and does not want anybody to interfere with his. The Association asserts, last, no opportunity to malign him.

To prove this statement, he expects to receive from a man in Cleveland a copy of instructions concerning him. Mr. Powderly, sent out by the Associated Press. He declares that these instructions were sent out at the instance of Jay Gould, and the agents were ordered to misrepresent him. Mr. Powderly also says he is not aspiring to any political position, as has been asserted, but is willing to remain with the Knights of Labor as long as they desire his services.

A MOUNTAIN RAID.

The Most Successful Capture Ever Made in Tennessee.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 10.—A posse of revenue officers, headed by United States Deputy Marshal Hill, made a raid in Cumberland county. It was one of the most successful raids made for years, and as a result three illicit distilleries and sixteen moonshiners were captured.

One of the still houses was the largest concern ever seen in the state. All the men were chained and arrested, and the agents made no resistance. Five hundred gallons of whisky were run into a cask at one place.

MR. ARTHUR'S CONDITION.

There are Grave Doubts of His Recovery.

A Dangerous Relapse.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Mr. Arthur has been a change for the worse in General Arthur's condition, and there are grave doubts of his recovery. It is well known that in similar cases, where the patient has seemed to be on the road to recovery, there suddenly appeared a dangerous and perhaps fatal relapse.

While it is not true that the relapse has in the general's case, he has of late been getting weaker. Though everything external was favorable for a drive yesterday, the general was not strong enough to do so.

ELECTION BRIBERY.

It Becomes the Subject of a Collective Letter from the Bishops of Quebec.

QUEBEC, June 10.—It is understood that a collective letter from the bishops of the province, lately in council, here, will soon be published against Free Masonry; also, among the decrees adopted by the council is one relative to the giving or taking of bribes at elections.

Roman Catholics who accuse themselves of confession of these offenses cannot get absolution from an ordinary priest, but will have to apply to the bishop of their diocese as in case of perjury.

Valuable Discovery of Documents.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., June 10.—Major E. C. Boynton, of this city, author of the "History of West Point," and formerly adjutant general of the military academy, has discovered all the original copies of the official orders to the army issued at West Point during the revolution. They throw light on many disputed questions. Comparatively few of them have ever been published. Maj. Boynton found them in the house and saloon, of a family who attached no particular importance to them.

Feeling the Political Pulse.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 10.—It is no more than probable that Ex-Senator T. W. Ferry will figure prominently in the coming campaign. He will attend the pioneer meeting at Grand Rapids on Wednesday next, not only as an old soldier of Michigan and a former member of the legislature, but also to renew acquaintance with political friends and to greatly feel the sentiment entertained toward him throughout the state.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 10.—At Madison, Ark., a gang of men entered the house of James Anderson. Knocking him senseless, they went through his house and saloon, destroying all within reach. They then came back to where Anderson was lying and beat him in such a manner it is thought he will die.

Train Wrecked and Fireman Killed.

SATYASAH, Ga., June 10.—Some scoundrel deliberately wrecked the night express on the Georgia Central rails near Satyah, yesterday morning. The engine and three coaches left the track, killing the fireman and seriously injuring the engineer.

NO. 1 TALKS.

Patrick Joseph Perry Tynan Tells What Ireland Needs.

WATERBURY, Conn., June 10.—Patrick Henry Joseph Tynan, who supported No. 1 of the Irish invader, whose name was identified by the informant, James Carey, in here, says he is positive that the only way Ireland can be made self-sufficient and self-supporting is by increasing her manufactures, or rather by establishing manufactures, as there are comparatively few industries in the country. English goods with Ireland is of a much more gigantic nature. The country are brought there by commercial travelers who visit the large towns three or four times a year, collecting more money for their wares than the manifold amount of the rest of Irish landlords.

Some what may the Irish people are determined to manage their own affairs, and to shape the destinies of the nation. Should British people return a majority as spoken of against Home Rule, Mr. Tynan thought it would merely result in the change of the name of discussing the needs of Ireland from the house of commons to some other place.

A DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

SENATORS CONSIDERING REPUBLICAN ORDER OF BUSINESS.

A Decision Reached to Ask a Change in the Program, Making Omnipotent and Additional Receptions to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland at the White House.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—There was a caucus of Democratic senators for the purpose of considering the order of business proposed by the Republican caucus committee.

Mr. Beck laid before the caucus the order proposed by the Republicans, which contained the consideration of the bill providing for southern inquiry under national authority, and repealing the pre-emption, desert land and timber culture acts; also the Pacific funding bill, arbitration, fractional whisky, New York harbor obstructions, agricultural experiment stations, consular of American states, steel ordinance, Wall and La Abra claims, and merchant marine.

The caucus decided to ask the Republicans to include in the order of business the Mexican pension, and the Rice Springs bill, and to exclude the southern inquiry bill.

The following bills are included in the order of business: The Rice Springs bill, the Mexican pension, Des Moines river lands vote, open sessions, lottery, army, and private land claims.

Postal Contract Awarded.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The postmaster general to-day awarded the contract for stamped envelopes and newspaper-wrappers for four years, beginning October 1 next, to the Morgan Envelope Company, of Springfield, Mass., and the Plinton Manufacturing company, of Hartford, Conn., these companies uniting in a bid of $300,000. Under the recent advertisement. They are the present contractors. Making a dual allowance for the natural increase in the prices of envelopes and wrappers, the expiration during the four years of the contract, it is estimated will be about $350,000, as against a cost of about $300,000 of the quantities at present contract prices. The reduction therefore under the new contract will be nearly one million dollars. The public will receive the direct benefit of the reduction, as the envelopes are as near as may be at the cost of manufacture.

Presidential Receptions.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—It is announced at the executive mansion that a state reception will be given by the president and Mrs. Cleveland, on Tuesday evening next, to which the cabinet, the diplomatic corps, the judiciary, congress, the officers of the army and navy, the heads of certain bureaus and the ladies of their families will be invited. The hours of the reception will be from 7 to 11 o'clock. A group of reception to which the public is invited without cards will be given on the following Friday evening, June 18th, from 9 o'clock to midnight. The reception will not be at home to callers until after these receptions.

BOUND TO MARRY.

A Sensational Elopement—Enraged Father. Drugged and Run Over.

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 10.—Ward Frattice, a young farm laborer, who was drugged, a bright, eighteen-year-old daughter of a prominent New Milford farmer. As they were about to enter the carriage her father appeared and tried to stop the runaway. The stalwart groom shoved him aside and lifted the bride into the carriage. At this moment the girl's brother responded to the father's call. He jumped from bed with only one garment on and grabbed the horse's head.

The groom started the team, knocking both father and son down. The latter was dragged some distance, and two of the wheels passed over him, bruising his limbs. A woman, seeing a rupture which will remain through life. The plucky pair drove to Beloit, were married, and are now ready to be forgiven.

Went Out on Bail.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Baldwin, the indicted Anarchist who was brought back from Omaha, was removed from the East Chicago police station. Anarchist, by detectives and his attorney. He was taken before Judge Rodgers. Attorney Solomon entered a motion asking that the prisoner be admitted to bail, and that the court listen to arguments on the motion.

At Garfield's Tomb.

CLEVELAND, O., June 10.—The soldiers who have guarded the late President Garfield's tomb for the past five years have received orders returning them from duty on June 30. A petition signed by Cleveland citizens will be forwarded to the secretary of war asking that the guard be retained.

Western Union Dividend.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Tribune thinks the Western Union dividend will be passed, and says the amount will be less of current year, account of the cable war of rates, the land business having been larger than during the same quarter last year.

EAST ST. LOUIS TO BE ROBBED AND PLUNDERED.

Murphysville.
Murphysville will get over $3,000 from the county this year for turnpikes. The tax-payers of that precinct are asked to contribute less than $100 for a few years to aid in securing the Mayville and Big Sandy Railroad, extending through our county a distance of nearly twenty miles. Mayville and the two Mayville precincts contribute over $9,000 to this turnpike fund the present year and the people of Murphysville will show a mean and illiberal spirit, if they vote against the railroad proposition Saturday simply because the road will run through other precincts. They know they would vote in favor of a road to be built through that section. In addition to this, the Mayville and Big Sandy will add about $400,000 to the tax list of the county, nearly double the assessment of that precinct this year. The subscription has to be paid, and the people of the county surely do not want the guarantors to pay it out of their own pockets when the county is to receive the benefits.

Minerva.
The people of Minerva County will pay about $24,000 this year for turnpikes. Minerva precinct will get $5,000 of this sum. It will help the citizens of that precinct in the way of providing good means of travel, but these turnpikes will never pay any revenue back into the county treasury. Minerva has always received a liberal share of the turnpike fund and it will not reflect any credit upon her citizens for them to vote against the railroad proposition Saturday, simply because the road will be built through another precinct. If the subscription be made, they would be called upon for only $114.78 a year for a few years. The two Mayville precincts will pay over $3,000, towards securing good roads for Minerva, and that section of the county, and we ask the people out there to act "white" and vote for the railroad proposition.

Lewisburg.
A citizen from Lewisburg stated yesterday that the railroad proposition would carry in his precinct. He was opposed to it, but his neighbors, or at least a majority of them, were not. Mayville tax-payers have helped in the past few years to provide good turnpikes and bridges for that precinct, and it would be mean and illiberal now for the people of that section to vote against the subscription to the railroad next Saturday, simply because the road is to be built along the river. The assessed value of property in that precinct this year amounts to about $700,000. The Mayville and Big Sandy will add more than half that sum to the taxable value of our property, and the road is certain to prove a big benefit in other ways. A vote for the proposition will be a vote to advance the interests of the county, and the State, too.

Nada.
Are the people of Nada going to vote against the railroad proposition Saturday? If they do, then we will acknowledge that we have been entertaining a wrong opinion of them. That section has received more benefits from the turnpike fund in the past few years than any portion of our county. The sum of $7,000, or nearly one-third of the 40 cents yearly this year, will go to that section for turnpikes and bridges. The tax-payers of that four precincts along the river, and of this city, will pay one-half of this turnpike fund—$24,000—this year, and we ask the people, not only of Nada, but of all that section of the county, to vote in favor of the proposition to help secure our railroad. It will prove a big thing for the entire county, and the county should not want the guarantors to pay the subscription out of their own pockets.

This "war of words" between Governor Knott and Comptroller Durbin is at an end, that for the present. It will very likely "bob up serenely" again in the approaching contest for gubernatorial honors.

Hos. J. J. Nesbitt.
Judge of the Superior Court from this district. Mr. Nesbitt represented Bath County in the last Legislature, and was one of its leading members. He is one of the brightest speakers and lawyers in this section of the State, and will, no doubt, make a strong race for the Judgeship. Being a brother of our fellow-citizen, Mr. T. Y. Nesbitt, Mason County will naturally give him a hearty support.

Ben. D. PARRY is the Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court. But this need not prevent any sensible republican who wishes to do so from voting for him. He will be glad to get all the votes he can, and won't quarrel with any one of these politicians who pays him the compliment to vote for him. This is about the best thing they can do. The Republican nomination for the office was not made with any hope of electing the Republican candidate, and scarcely with a wish to do so. It was a matter of mere form. Mr. PARRY has made an efficient and faithful officer, and is fairly entitled to a re-election.—Eagle.

The Entire Police Force of the City Implicated With Professional Cracksmen to Gopher the Banks and Principal Business Houses—The Scheme Given Away.
East St. Louis, June 10.—The city council last night discharged the entire police force on the charge of conspiracy to rob the banks and business houses of the city. Eighteen months ago the city treasury was robbed of $3,000, and a lieutenant of police, Tom Duffy, is now serving a sentence in Chester for the crime. A confession recently, the result of which was the trial of two other city officials for implication in the offense. The jury disagreed.

Sheriff Ropique, of St. Clair county, recently arrested a burglar, who after a short confinement gave the details of a gigantic conspiracy to plunder East St. Louis. His story was substantially that he and two other cracksmen, all ex-police, had been invited to come to East St. Louis to operate. The invitation came from certain members of the police force. Accordingly he and his pals came and had several interviews with the police, the result of which was the formation of plans to rob the East St. Louis bank, Washington bank and half a dozen of the leading business houses.

A man named Jack Britton employed at the Little rolling mill was alleged to be in the conspiracy and had charge of the tools. Both banks were to be plundered the same night and by prearrangement the police were to be out of the way. The understanding was that the police were to have half of the proceeds and help the burglars off with the booty. On the strength of this statement Britton was arrested and is now in Belleville jail. The matter was called to Mayor Joyce's attention and the facts and circumstances pointed so strongly against the force that the mayor called a special session of the council. The matter was partially examined in the council chamber and a resolution adopted discharging the entire force, Chief Holleran alone being retained.

A FEMALE FIEND.
An Unnatural Mother Drowns Her Child for Spite—Husband Insane.

STAFFORD, Va., June 10.—Mrs. William Sloan has for several months been extremely jealous of her husband, and the affairs of the family have been the topic of conversation among the villagers. Mr. Sloan returned from his travels, and the evening of his little four-year-old boy, who always met him at the door, failed to do so. On going into the house he inquired for his son, but the only reply he received from his wife was that he had gone on an errand. As the hours passed he grew nervous, and finally he asked the neighborhood. A large number of neighbors assisted him in looking for the child. All night and the next morning the search was continued without any clue to the boy's whereabouts.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon one of the neighbors happened to look into a muddy drain at the back of the house, where he discovered the missing child. There were several bruises on the face and body, and there was other evidence that he had been murdered. The body was removed to Sloan's house and laid at the feet of Mrs. Sloan. She did not show any signs of emotion or surprise, and when spoken to merely said: "It served her husband right to inflict such a punishment on him."

The cool way in which she took the matter, and also as she had refused to join in the search, led the neighbors to believe that she had committed the murder. A constable took her in custody, and shortly after being locked up the confessed having drowned the child. Her only reason for doing so was, she said, to spite her husband. The shock has made Mr. Sloan insane.

STARTING OUT YOUNG.

A Boy Steals a Trunk of Bonds and Gold to Fill Up on Pie.

BOSTON, June 10.—A few days ago Detective Deane was called in to trace the disappearance from a lawyer's office in this city of $340,000 in unregistered government bonds. Investigation disclosed that the trunk containing the securities had been stolen by a little office boy, who knocked out the lock and helped himself to $50 in gold coins which were in the trunk, and went to fill up on pie, leaving the trunk with the bonds hidden under the old Merchant's exchange.

The next day the lad returned the trunk to his employer's office, hiding it an out of the way place, where it was subsequently found, with the bonds untouched. The boy began his stealing by taking postage stamps, which were legal tender at Williams' court pie stand.

Wants His Money Back.
SPRINGFIELD, O., June 10.—A national suit, that is stirring up the fancy, was filed in the court of common pleas yesterday. W. A. Childs, ex-mayor of Vermilion, a leading citizen and well known politician, has sued David Wolf, of this city, to recover $700; C. H. McGraw, Vermilion, to recover $1,010, and Jacob Schrade, also of Vermilion, to recover $750 in lost gambling.

A Bachelor Uses His Razor on Himself.
ST. LOUIS, June 10.—George Eiling, a barber, committed suicide this morning at his home, No. 128 Broadway. While his wife was in the bath, he went to the bathroom, adjusted the looking-glass so as to get a good view of his throat. Death resulted in a few minutes. Melancholy is stated as the motive.

Politics in Rhode Island.
WOODSTOCK, R. I., June 10.—After a two-day's contest the Democrats have carried the election for town officers by creditable majorities in every instance. There is a jubilee in the party. This is the first time such a thing has been accomplished in eight years. There will be a public celebration to-morrow evening.

Samuel J. Tilden Sails.

NEW YORK, June 10.—S. J. Tilden took a long sail up the Hudson with his wife on his steam yacht Viking. He was assisted out of his carriage by one of the yacht's officers and then walked jauntily aboard and enjoyed the sail.

FROM MICHAEL DAVITT.

A Message to Patrick Ford—The Hope of Ireland.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A cablegram from Dublin, bearing Michael Davitt's signature, was received by Mr. Patrick Ford in this city to-day. It reads as follows: "I received your remittance of £200 sterling for the relief of the distressed people of Ireland, and will leave for the islands of the west coast to-morrow to inaugurate my tour upon the present condition of the famine-stricken there."

"The Orange ruffianism in the north of Ireland, the line of landlords and the English Tories. Don't encourage retaliatory violence. Patience was never more needed than at this time. Victory is certain if the Irish race throughout the world will stand united, and calmly persevere on the present line."

SONG OF THE BOOKKEEPER.

Nabs His Employers, Lives High and Starves His Family.

BOSTON, June 10.—Thomas S. Knight, for six months past leading actor for the Standard dramatic company, was arrested yesterday for embezzling $3,000 from the Flower medicine company, for which he was confidentially booked by the latter six months ago, and $700 from Dr. R. C. Flower.

Knight's embezzlement was discovered by the Flower's some time ago, but he was allowed his liberty by promising restitution and pleading his innocent wife and children. Since then he has himself lived expensively at the Adams house and allowed his wife and children to be turned out of doors for non-payment of rent. Knight has been held in $3,000 for trial.

Western Union.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Western Union directors at their meeting to-day decided to pass over the dividend for the quarter ending June 30. The reasons given are loss of earnings entailed by the cable rate war and expenditures to meet obligations for taxes, judgments in suits, etc.

In the report of the company the net revenue for the quarter ending June 30, inst., based upon nearly completed returns for April, partial returns for May and estimated returns for June, was $1,911,900, which added to the balance on hand April 1, leaves a total surplus of $4,509,568.43. From this are appropriated the following sums: Insurance, $100,000; interest on bonds, $1,000,000; leaving a balance of $4,509,568.43.

Minister Pendleton's Movements.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Mr. James Barton Key, a nephew of Minister Pendleton, said to-day: "Mr. Pendleton has vacation of only three weeks. This he will spend with his daughters and sons in the south of England. On the expiration of his leave of absence he will return to his duties at Berlin. His family will go with him, and they will probably remain abroad for some years."

Song of the Bookkeeper.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—John Donaldson pleaded guilty before Judge Gordon of embezzling $5,000, the property of the Quaker Fire Insurance company, by whom he was employed as bookkeeper. The plea was covered by the indictment. He was committed to the Eastern penitentiary for two years.

The Horrors of Vivisection.

Vivisection is a terrible thing, even when anesthetic is employed, but without them an operator must have nerves of steel and the heartlessness of a devil to perform it unmoved. Of course, I don't pretend to say that I am a humane man. I repeat, it is a horrible thing—horrible beyond expression. Some years ago, a lot of dogs were killed in the streets of London, and a horse in a cellar. The animal was tied to stakes driven in the ground, and after two or three futile attempts to chloroform it, they went to work with knives. To prevent suffering brute from making a noise, and the cry of a horse in pain is one of the most appalling sounds, earthy ears, but the local cords. All it could do after that was to make a hissing sound, like wind escaping from an air pump. They penetrated the sensitive nerves of the living bone, and finally lifted out some of the organs. One of those who was present at the operation told me he thought the horror would never die, and that the scene haunted him for months.—Dr. J. O. Reed.

In the Hands of Conservatives.

I was talking the other day at the Palmer house with a bright, energetic young man from a town some hundred miles from Chicago. He told me in substance: "My town is a most discouraging place for a young man with public energy. There is no room and wealth of the town are in the hands of a lot of residents who are able to live handsomely from their rents and interest. I can't see how a young man can grow up or not. In fact, some of them would rather see it remain just as it is, for they have become so attached to the old landmarks that they do not like to see them disturbed. No encouragement is given to any new enterprise that may be started. On the contrary, it is his tendency to interfere with the business of the old merchants, they land together to crush the new-comer out. While other towns around it, with no better natural advantages, are pushing right ahead, ours is as dead as a last year's bird's nest."—Cor. Chicago Journal.

The President and His Visitors.

President Cleveland has a queer way of expressing his interest in a visitor. If he is pleased and is won over, he will stand with his hands behind his back and settle with his hands on his hips. If he drops his hands to his side, you may be certain that he is all attention, and is about to get at the facts in the case. If he once has his hands together in front of him, you may be very certain that the matter has been settled as far as he is concerned, and a further audience is unnecessary. It is said that there never has been an instance where the President brought his hands together in front of him but that he accomplished the gesture of an emphatic and decided negative.—Washington Letter.

All Knocked Out of Him.

A young nobleman was a guest at the Albanian hotel, New York, recently and is just starting for Little Rock, Ark., and for Texas, where he has friends, and may travel in land and cattle. Victor Henry Nelson is the common every-day name he carries. He is a slender young man, with a dainty brown mustache, beautifully curled at the ends, but with not the slightest English affectation. He has had it all knocked out of him brushing around the world, he says.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Weather.
